

Introduced by Senator CampbellFebruary 22, 2005

---

An act to amend Section 92000 of the Education Code, relating to the University of California.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1080, as introduced, Campbell. University of California.

Existing law establishes the University of California under the administration of the Regents of the University of California. Existing law provides that the name "University of California" is the property of the state.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes in the provision relating to the name of the university.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 92000 of the Education Code is
2 amended to read:
3 92000. (a) The name "University of California" is the
4 property of the state. No person shall, without the permission of 5 the Regents of the University of California, use this name, or any 6 abbreviation of it or any name of which these words are a part, in 7 any of the following ways:
8 (1) To designate any business, social, political, religious, or 9 other organization, including, but not necessarily limited to, any 10 corporation, firm, partnership, association, group, activity, or 11 enterprise.

1 (2) To imply, indicate or otherwise suggest that ~~any such~~ the
2 organization, or any product or service of ~~such the~~ organization is 3 connected or affiliated with, or is endorsed, favored, or supported
4 by, or is opposed by the University of California.

5 (3) To display, advertise, or announce this name publicly at, or 6 in connection with, any meeting, assembly, or demonstration, or 7 any propaganda, advertising, or promotional activity of any kind
8 which has for its purpose or any part of its purpose the support,
9 endorsement, advancement, opposition, or defeat of any strike,
10 lockout, or boycott or of any political, religious, sociological, or 11 economic movement, activity, or program.

12 (b) Nothing in this section shall interfere with or restrict the 13 right of any person to make a true and accurate statement of his 14 or her present or former relationship or connection with, his or 15 her employment by, or his or her enrollment in, the University of 16 California in the course of stating his or her experience or 17 qualifications for any academic, governmental, business, or 18 professional credit or enrollment, or in connection with any
19 academic, governmental, professional, or other employment
20 whatsoever.

21 (c) Every person violating the provisions of this section is 22 guilty of a misdemeanor.